Gen. Canby has issued an order probibiting negro troops mustered out of service from purchasing their arms.

Well-thormed gentlemen from Mississippi say there is a good deal of cotton still there. Much of it has been shipped to Memphis for lack of railroad facilities to New Orleans or Mobile. This will be corrected soon. There is much cotton in the field in Central Texas, of the new crop, but the freedmen will not pick it.

On the finest plantations in Lower Texas cotton will not be planted, and the lands are already growing up in weeds A report from Mississippi, from undoubted sources, states that if the corn raised in enough to feed the planters families the coming ceasen, it will be all that can be expected. There are some complaints, as in Texas, that the freedmen won't work.
